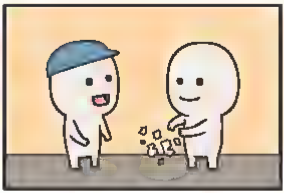
Penguin Loves Mev

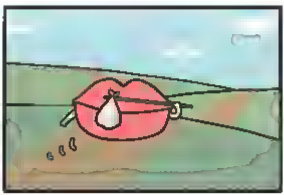
In the UK

I can't hold it!

Birds hear in the daytime,
rats hear in the night time.
*The walls have ears



A word can pay off a debt
*A good tongue is a good weapon



A footless word travels 1000 miles.
*Bad news travel fast.

Like these proverbs,
I think it's important to be careful before talking about something.

I sometimes fail too,
but I always do my best to do not make a mistake with my tongue.

Especially,
I don't spread gossip.

I don't like to talk about the negative things of others.

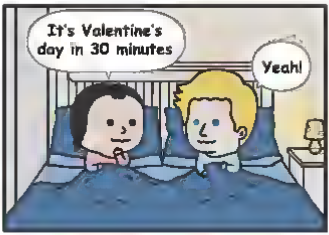
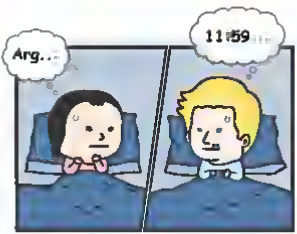
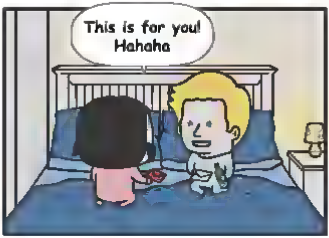
However,...

...if it's a good story,. .

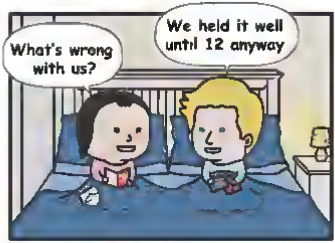




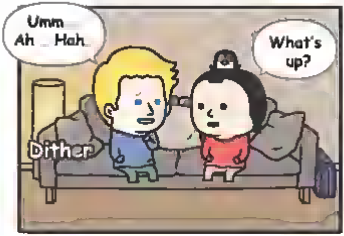
12 o'clock



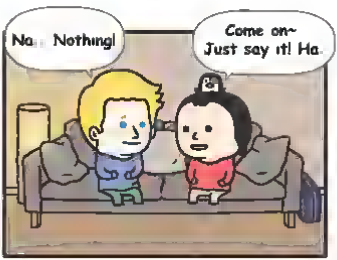
. . . it's so hard to keep my mouth shut.



So Mev and I can't hold things when it's our anniversaries or birthdays.



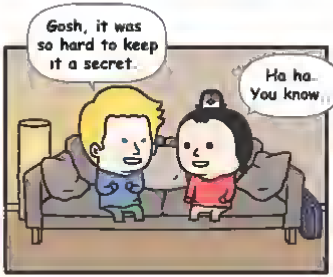
Especially, Mev is worse
at keeping happy secrets than I am.



Is it really OK to tell you?
Yeah. What is it?

I thought about your birthday present. So I searched about it!

Do you want to go to see the aurora in Iceland? It would be awesome!
Oh!?



Gosh, it was so hard to keep it a secret..
Ha ha.. You know..

So once,
I knew what my birthday present was 10 months before the day.
